NEW METHODISTS IMMERSED IN RIVER

Convicts at Ossining Camp
Meeting Join Church
Like Baptists.

They were ducking men and women in the Hudson near Ossining, today. It wasn't the revival of the old witch stunts such as they used to have long ago in those historic hills. The ducks went willingly in this case—they were converts and were enthusiastic about the ceremony.

There were five women and a man, and they have embraced what is called by some scoffers "silly-bark Methodism," which is unique in that immersion is believed to be necessary, just as the Baptists believe.

There was a brisk wind blowing and the Hudson was chilly, but the converts didn't mind. The first to go was Miss Ida Christman, who was led out by the Rev. J. Carpenter, who had been in charge of the camp meeting the past week, on one side, and the Rev. O. A. Gage, of New York, on the other.

It seemed so easy for her that the others went through the ceremony without a word of complaint. The Rev. J. Carpenter, who was in charge of the ceremony, said that the converts were "silly-bark Methodists," which is unique in that immersion is believed to be necessary, just as the Baptists believe.

FEAR OF BOSS COST LIFE.

Louis Gozard Remained on Track and Train Killed Him.

Louis Gozard, young, strong, recently from Italy, and in mortal fear of the boss, went to work as a section hand for the New York Central Railroad a few days ago. He was working with a gang today in the cut on the White Plains Division, between One Hundred and Eighty-eighth and One Hundred and Eighty-ninth streets in the Bronx. A south-bound train, drawn by a motor, swiftly approached. The motor engineer, A. String, blew his whistle and the Italian section men scrambled for safety. Louis Gozard, with one eye on the boss, did not leave with the others. He noticed that the boss remained standing on the track. If the boss remained on the track, he argued, he would remain on the track, too. Then the boss stepped aside and the train struck Gozard and hurled him fifty feet against the side of the track. Death was instantaneous.

GAS ENGINE BLOWS UP.

Two Men Injured Near Entrance to Dreamland.

Two men were badly burned by the explosion of a gas engine at Stuenhorst restaurant, near the Dreamland entrance, Coney Island, this afternoon. Martin Cramer, sixty years, who lost his right eye and Frank Conroy, of No. 274 West Fifteenth avenue, Coney Island, was burned about the face and arm.

The pair were working on the gas engine, which furnishes the power for the fans, when a lighted match was lighted with the open gas cock. The explosion caused a panic in the neighborhood through some persons' confusion, and the police reserves were summoned.

The damage to the building was slight. The injured men are at the Coney Island Reception Hospital.

FALLS FROM WINDOW.

George Hennessey, fifteen years old, fell from a third story window at which he was sleeping in his home, No. 2315 Fifth avenue, at 4 o'clock this morning, and was found unconscious in the air. At the Harlem Hospital it was said he had a fracture of the skull that probably would be fatal.

Senator McCarren's Own Story of Fight in Brooklyn; Says Murphy Seeks to Be Dictator of the Greater City

Tammany Leader's Attempt to Control Kings "Politically Is Insulting and Will Never Be Tolerated."

"ARROGANCE IS SO ABSURD AS TO CAUSE LAUGHTER."

Brooklyn Leader Intimates That the Legality of Convention Nominations May Be Attacked in Court.

Written for The Evening World
By P. H. McCarren.

Considerable confusion exists in the public mind concerning the status of the Democratic organization in Brooklyn, and the attempt of Charles F. Murphy to Tammanyize Kings County. Here is the situation, succinctly and fairly set forth:

Mr. Murphy's motive is to secure control of all the city. He is short-sighted enough to think that by the application of his prestige as leader of Tammany Hall he can subordinate all the borough organizations. But he fails to realize the character of the Brooklyn people.

The situation in Brooklyn seems to be incomprehensible to Mr. Murphy. If he were amenable to the reason that everybody recognizes he would have seen long ago that his attempt to control Brooklyn, politically is insulting, and will never be tolerated. His arrogance is so absurd and grotesque as to excite laughter.

The people of Brooklyn, irrespective of party, are greatly amused at the clownish efforts of Mr. Murphy. Brooklyn is developing at a very rapid rate. I think it no exaggeration to say that at the present time the population, in round figures, is 1,500,000. The civic and local pride of a community of that size does not seem to be realized by Mr. Murphy and the natural resentment arising from interference with the rights of such a community does not seem to strike him as a thing to be considered.

His effort at dictatorship is so ridiculous that everybody in Brooklyn believes him to be entirely oblivious to the nature of his undertaking. Naming leaders when the whim suggests, and deposing them because of dissatisfaction with their efforts, is akin to the action of the policeman at a Southern fair who clubbed the people on the shins for standing up, giving as a reason that he had some authority and wanted to exercise it.

We Get Out the Vote.

As for the claim that the Democratic organization in Brooklyn is losing ground and does not get out the Democratic vote for the candidates, I assert that the statement is not true. We get out the Democratic vote in Brooklyn in better proportion than Tammany Hall does in Manhattan.

The figures show, without any chance for argument, that the Democratic vote in Manhattan has been steadily falling off for the past four or five years. Our showing has been much better, and we have in Brooklyn, in the Mayoralty fight three years ago, and the State and Congressional elections, been confronted with just the same anti-Democratic opposition that confronted Tammany in Manhattan. The comparison between our vote and Tammany's vote is all in our favor.

In the coming primary fight there are six district leaders in revolt. We expect to beat them all. We find that the people in the districts represented by the six leaders who have attempted to sell the organization to Tammany Hall understand the issue and are indignant at the treachery. So far as we can find an expression in all these districts sufficient to justify a prediction, we are safe in saying that the action of these leaders will be rebuked and their defeat brought about.

"Our Primaries Are Legal."

Our primaries will be perfectly legal. We presume that our delegates to the State convention will be seated. Every litigation growing out of the primary law thus far has been decided in such a way as to emphatically declare that law controlling and binding. In other words, the courts have held that the expression of the will of the people at the primaries is tantamount to an expression of their preference at a general election.

We are now close up to the doors of the State Convention. Our next step will be to show that the convention is amenable to the law and subject to the orders of the court wherever the convention attempts to nullify the law.

Our purpose is to show, when the time comes, that the nominee of a convention illegally conducted

POLICEMAN GAVE HIMSELF A SHOT

Pistol Fell From Pocket During Chase, Sent Bullet
Into Leg.

Half an hour after he had heard a pistol shot which he could not trace, Patrolman James McConville, of the Coney Island police station, Brooklyn, noticed his right leg becoming numb and then making an examination discovered he had been shot just above the knee. This was at 2 o'clock this morning.

Patrolman Travers came up as McConville was contemplating the wound. "Punished him in the world how I got this," said McConville, indicating the wound.

"It ain't one of them Jersey mosquito bites, Jim," asked Travers for a joke.

"No, it feels as if I had been sprayed with a stinging gun," answered McConville, as he fashioned a tourniquet with handkerchief and club. Then he suddenly clapped a hand to his pistol pocket and exclaimed, "It's gone!"

His revolver was missing. He had chased a gang of young men from the corner of Havemeyer and South Fifth streets just before he heard the mysterious shot. His revolver had dropped from his pocket unawares to the blue coat in the excitement of the chase which retarded his capture. McConville turned to pursue again and the revolver he had lost his gun and been shot in the bargain.

With Travers he went over the route of the pursuit again and the revolver was found in the gutter with one chamber discharged. McConville went to the Eastern District Hospital, where he will lay up for repairs for a day or two.

HISGEN IS WEAK IN MY DISTRICT, SAYS WILLIAMS

After Careful Canvass He Puts Vote for Hearst Candidate at 500.

By Roswell D. Williams.
Executive Member, Tammany Hall,
Seventeenth Assembly District.

Basing my estimate on a canvass made by the election district captains of the Assembly Districts of which I am the Democratic leader, I do not believe that Mr. Hisgen, the Independence League candidate for President, will poll more than 500 votes in the Seventeenth.

The small shopkeepers along Columbus and Amsterdam avenues will not vote for the Hearst candidate, because they are against a continuance of the present administration, which, they believe, will occur if they vote against Mr. Bryan. That Candidate Hisgen will be overwhelmingly beaten is, of course, conceded by residents of the west side.

If the Independence League ticket receives more votes than the Socialist party it will surprise me.

There is no question about the popularity of Mr. Taft among the richer classes. The clerks, small merchants and professional men who make up the uncertain vote of the Seventeenth have settled to vote for Mr. Bryan. It is too early to make a prediction on figures. Last Presidential election Mr. Roosevelt received a plurality of about 2,500 in my district. Bryan will not be beaten by that number of ballots this year, and that's certain.

POLITICS AT A GLANCE

Following their forty mile backboard drive over the Blue Ridge Mountains Mr. and Mrs. Taft attended and danced a German at Green River Inn last night. This forenoon the nominee is a guest of Congressman Guinness, and later will be given a public reception. To-morrow night Judge Taft will be the guest of honor at a banquet. Sunday he and Mrs. Taft will attend church, then will begin preparations for the return trip to Hot Springs. Mr. Taft and Mrs. John Taft left the grand march at the Horse Show German last night, and each gentleman an American flag. Mr. Taft was applauded as he entered the ballroom.

Gov. Hughes is again back at Saratoga from where he expects to round out his vacation uninterrupted. He returned from a short trip through Indian Pass and up Mount Marcy. He was accompanied by his son, Charles E. Jr., and the latter's college chum, E. C. Chase.

A dinner given by Montgomery County Democrats at Amsterdam, N. Y., last night, was productive of a boom.

for George M. Palmer, minority leader in the Assembly, for Governor. Mr. Palmer was similarly boomed once before.

Another speaking date has been agreed to by Mr. Bryan. At the suggestion of former Senator Pettigrew he will go to Mitchell, S. D., Aug. 22, from Topeka. According to the Senator the Democrats of South Dakota make a tactical error in assailing the radical Republicans to defeat Senator Kittredge by voting in the primaries for Gov. Crawford.

John W. Kern, Democratic Vice-Presidential nominee, declared at headquarters in Chicago to-day that the prospects for victory were never more bright. He said Indiana will be found in the Democratic column this year, and that Thomas R. Marshall will make a winning run for Governor. The Republicans are split throughout the State, said Mr. Kern, and many will vote for Marshall.

Frank H. Hitchcock, President of the Republican National Committee, will start for Hot Springs Monday or Tuesday night to confer with Judge Taft and Arthur L. Vorys. It was at the suggestion of Judge Taft that Chairman Hitchcock decided to go to Virginia, for it is said he is not on the best of terms with Vorys.

J. P. Morgan's partner, E. T. Statesbury, of Philadelphia, has been appointed by Chairman Hitchcock to collect campaign funds from the Pennsylvania manufacturers and business men.

Minneapolis Democrats are interested in a story to the effect that Mr. Bryan's adherents in Minnesota will be asked to give way to the followers of Carl Johnson in the management of the campaign in that State, and that Johnson's manager, Fred B. Lynch, is allowed to run things here. It is also said Mr. Bryan is desirous that Mr. Johnson run for a third term, and has so expressed himself to the Governor. This all follows the conference Mr. Bryan had with Mr. Lynch at Lincoln last Wednesday. Mr. Bryan believes that with a strong fight for him in Minnesota other States in the Northwest may be carried.

Senator Foraker, who has opened the Republican campaign in Ohio for fifteen years, is reported to have been turned down yesterday by the sub-committee of the Republican State Executive Committee. It was decided to open the campaign in Youngstown on Sept. 1, with Gov. Hughes of New York, Gov. Harris, of Ohio, and Senator Beveridge of Indiana as the principal speakers. Arthur L. Vorys will act as chairman. Gov. Harris was preferred over Senator Foraker by the committee.

Killed by Rockaway Train.

A young man was killed by a Long Island Railroad train at Kane avenue, Rockaway Beach, while crossing the tracks, to-day. He was about twenty-one years old, 5 feet 5 inches in height and weighed about 145 pounds. He had a dark complexion and dark hair and eyes. He wore a black striped shirt, black striped trousers, light underclothes, brown socks and light shoes.

$500 TO COVER COST OF BRYAN NOTIFICATION

Only Two Bands, Police Platoon and Mounted Escort to Candidate in Parade.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 8.—Not more than $500 will be spent by the local committee upon the Bryan notification ceremonies Aug. 12. Mayor F. W. Brown, as chairman of the committee, has raised that amount and the expense will be kept within that limit. The parade will consist of two bands, a platoon of police and a company of mounted Democrats as escort for Messrs. Bryan and Kern and the Notification Committee. There will be no marching clubs in the parade.

MACK TO SEE BRYAN ON CAMPAIGN PLANS.

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—An important conference having to do with the adoption of a general outline of campaign will be held on Tuesday between W. J. Bryan and Norman E. Mack, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, in Lincoln, Neb. Mr. Mack will leave for Lincoln immediately after a meeting here on Monday of the various heads of the sub-committees of the National Committee at which tentative plans for the campaign will be formulated for presentation to Mr. Bryan.

Frederick Woodson, secretary of the National Committee, arrived here from his home in Kentucky to-day, and Gov. C. N. Haskell, of the Oklahoma committee, was expected to arrive later. Chairman Mack said that he would make further efforts to obtain a reconsideration of the order of the Western Passengers' Association declining to give reduced rate to the Bryan notification. Chairman Mack said that the headquarters would be closed to-morrow and the day spent in rest.

RECEIVERS NAMED FOR PILLSBURY-WASHBURN GIANT FLOUR CONCERN.

Company have been peculiar to that organization. While it is true that the petition for receivers cited bad management as one of the reasons for the receivership, no announcement is yet made regarding the status of Henry L. Little, who succeeded to the management upon the death of C. A. Pillsbury ten years ago. Officers of the company and the receivers as well state positively that at this time no action regarding Mr. Little's status has been taken.

The last statement of the company (dated four months ago) showed net earnings of $62,000. Against this were bond interest charges of $20,000, a dividend on preferred stock of $17,000 and other charges of $30,000, leaving a balance of only $15,000.

George A. Zabriske, the local agent for the company, when asked about the failure and application for receivers, said:

"The embarrassment was due to poor collections. Last May the directors of the corporation decided to postpone the dividend on the preferred shares, which they voted to become due to pay, until such time as the board resolved payments could be conveniently made."

The news of the crash of the Pillsbury Company caused a sensation in financial circles in this city and Chicago. There had not been the faintest hint that the company was in difficulty. With its enormous plants and vast capital, and with its products being one of the best known staples in the civilized world, it seemed almost unbelievable that no panic or business disturbance could shake it.

The Pillsbury-Washburn mills were incorporated in Great Britain in 1829. Most of the officers are foreigners. H. H. Glynn, an Englishman, is the chairman of the Board of Directors. Frank Spencer is American manager for the concern.

The company operates five mills situated in Minneapolis. They have an aggregate capacity of 30,000 bushels a day.

COMMUTERS HALTED BY TRAIN WRECK

Six Freight Cars Thrown Across Pennsylvania Tracks at Elizabeth.

(Special to The Evening World.)

ELIZABETH, N. J., Aug. 8.—An east-bound freight train on the Pennsylvania Railroad was derailed at South Elizabeth early to-day, and while nobody was injured, traffic was tied up for hours.

Most of the passenger trains were sent around by way of Metuchen. Many commuters bound for Newark, Jersey, and other points, were stranded by the wreck and on to the station here, where they boarded trolley cars for their destination.

The wreck was caused by the dropping of a brake rigging which threw the trucks of the car off the tracks. Six cars were derailed and the tracks torn up for some distance.

EX-SENATOR REYNOLDS'S FATHER HURT IN AUTO.

Trolley Car Smashes Motor Vehicle and Three in Tonneau are Injured.

FREESPORT, La., Aug. 8.—William Reynolds, sixty-four years old, father of ex-Senator William H. Reynolds, of Brooklyn, was injured to-day when an automobile in which he was riding was struck by a trolley car of the New York and Long Island Traction Company on the Long Beach road, at Ocean Side.

He was thrown from the car and suffered a broken rib and other injuries.

Ex-Senator Reynolds was telephoned to at Long Beach and he soon arrived on the scene with an automobile and had his father removed to his home in Brooklyn. Doctors from Tarrytown and Rockville Centre dressed the injuries of Mr. Reynolds and the other two men who were in the machine.

MOVE TO BALK BOSSSES IN FIGHT AGAINST HUGHES

Leading Members of Republican Club Start Campaign for Renomination.

TO "SHOW" ROOSEVELT.

Friends of the Governor Will Convince the President That Bosses Have Misled Him.

The movement to insure the renomination of Gov. Hughes, despite the opposition of the bosses of the State machine is crystallizing into concrete form and force. A monster mass-meeting at Madison Square Garden or Carnegie Hall under the auspices of prominent Republicans will be held toward the end of this month to show the politicians that there is really an overpowering Hughes sentiment among the people.

A significant fact in connection with the plans for this mass-meeting is that the men behind it are nearly all members of the Republican Club. The idea was generated within the Republican Club. The meeting will be given under the auspices of the club and the leading reform associations will be invited to take part.

They Oppose the Bosses.

Among those who have already given enthusiastic support to the mass-meeting project are Charles H. Young, president of the Republican Club, former Mayor Seth Low, James S. Lochmaster, William M. Irvine, William R. Willcox, Alexander V. Campbell, W. H. Douglas, Edward Lauterbach and Senator Alfred R. Page. It is anticipated that hundreds of Republicans opposed to the methods of Woodruff, Parsons, Ward and the other bosses will flock to the movement as soon as it gets started.

Invitations to participate in the mass meeting will be sent to the various church organizations, the Anti-Saloon League, the Association for the Suppression of Race Track Gambling, the City Club, the Corrupt Practices Association, the Society for the Suppression of Vice and the Citizens' Union. Other mass meetings will be held throughout the State, the object being to create a public sentiment for the renomination of the Governor, which the bosses dare not disregard when the State convention is assembled at Saratoga.

In addition to the movement mentioned there is another under way within the Bar Association. Admiration of Gov. Hughes and his policies in that body are arranging to get up a monster petition to be signed by lawyers and jurists all over the State asking the convention to renominate the Governor.

Want Choate to Lead.

The work of circulating the petition has been delayed because it is the desire of the projectors of the plan to have Joseph Choate lead off with his signature.

Gov. Hughes and his friends are convinced that if the President is allowed to listen to the politicians and bosses he will decree that the State Convention shall nominate a man satisfactory to the machine. They plan to counteract the assertions and assurances of the bosses that Hughes is weak by putting the contradiction up to the people.

The practical politicians around National and State Headquarters took things easy to-day. Gen. T. Coleman DuPont, of Delaware, Chairman of the Republican National Speakers' Committee, called on Chairman Hitchcock and talked over the plan of campaign. Gen. Choate is a business man and says he will run the Speakers' Bureau on business principles. Close tabs will be kept on all spellbinders by specially qualified spotters, and those who fail to make good will be dropped from the payroll.
